"On Line Consulting Services is a 22 year old independent company specializing in consulting and design of complex security and technology programs and systems. Recruiting qualified staff is a key to our ability to grow and to meet our clients expectations."

I have worked with Security Search and Consulting on some urgent and critical positions using their Priority Service. They have helped me fill Senior Project Manager and Consultant positions for my company.

I have counted on their knowledge and information to make hiring decisions in the past, and I consider them a strategic resource to my organization."

*Sandy Zirulnik - President
On Line Consulting Services*

"I felt that SS&C's Priority Service was the right choice and I am extremely pleased with the attention each position received. Having used contingent search options in the past, I'm convinced that this service is far superior in the timeliness of results, quality of candidates and support throughout the entire process. I would highly recommend your firm and this service to anyone who is ready to hire high quality industry professionals."
